

City Administrator for City of Remsen, Iowa

If you're a city manager searching for a new challenge or an assistant manager ready to step up to a lead role, consider bringing your experience and talent to the City of Remsen, Iowa, where you can make an impact in short order and over the long haul. We're looking for a strong leader with the vision and ability to take our thriving city to the next level. Working closely with the City Council and Mayor, and Utility Board of Trustees, you will take responsibility for city operations, managing everything from budget and financial oversight to employee hiring, growth, and development. You will serve as the face of the city in a variety of settings, interact with the public, effectively communicate with the Council, Utility Board, and other stakeholders, drive special projects and much more. Consider some of the advantages of joining our team. You will:

- Take ownership of a financially sound city with a long and rich history
- Have plenty of room to influence positive change and ongoing development
- Enjoy a friendly small town atmosphere close to Sioux City, IA and Sioux Falls, SD
- Earn competitive compensation and a comprehensive benefits package including Iowa Public Employees' Retirement System

To be a strong fit for the City Administrator opportunity, you will have:

- A bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university in Public or Business Administration or other directly related field of study;
- Strong experience (at least 6+ years with a bachelor's, 4+ with a master's) in municipal government working as a City Administrator, City Manager or Assistant City Manager desired
- Demonstrated skill and success managing and developing city employees
- Ability to work effectively with leadership, including the elected City Council and appointed Remsen Utility Board of Trustees
- Experience and skill working directly with the public
- Demonstrated skill and success in managing capital improvements, contracts, and budgets
- Be a resident of or establish residency in Remsen within 6 months of hire
